VOL. LVL-NO. 70. CONGRESS IS REPUBLICAN.

BOTH SENATE AND HOUSE CARRIED BY THE HARRISON WAVE.

The Scats of Uncle Eli Saulsbury and Young Napoleon Kenna Captured by the Enemy— A Republican to Wield the Speaker's Gavel-New York's Vote for President and Governer Unchanged by the Returns. The latest returns from West Virginia, by which the Republicans gain three Congressmen in that State, undoubtedly give the House of Representatives in the Fifty-first Congress to the Republicans by a small margin. Present ludications are that the Republican majority in that body will not be less than five. Three or four districts which are yet in doubt may slightly increase this figure.

The Republicans have carried the Legislatures in Delaware and West Virginia, which rill elect United States Senators to succeed Saulsbury and Kenna, Democrats. The Ropublicans will therefore retain their control of the Senate and have working majorities in both branches of Congress.

Corrected returns from New York State make only trifling changes in the vote for President and Governor. An error in the figures in Albany county's vote yesterday made Cleveland's plurality there 2.467. The corrected figures make it 1.674. This is nearly offset by slight reductions in Harrison's vote in eleven countles. Harrison's plurality in the State will stand, therefore, at about 12,000.

Gov. Hill's vote remains substantially unchanged from yesterday's figures. His pluralit will not vary much either way from 19,000. The complete returns from the rural counties in the State show that Cleveland and Hill run nearly even, both apparently getting the full party vote. Miller ran behind Harrison everywhere. The figures effectually disprove the allegations that the Hill men traded off the national ticket.

Lieut.-Gov. Jones and the rest of the Democratic State ticket are elected by about Hill's plurality.

THE FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS,

The Returns Cive the Republicans a Major-ity in the House, WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- Secretary McPherson of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee said this afternoon: "All of the information obtainable this morning justifies me in expressing the opinion that the next House will consist of 173 Republicans and 152 Democrats. There is a possibility that the Republican majority may be reduced by later advices to 19 or 20, but I have made liberal allowances in my calculations for all Democratic claims.' Representative Breekinridge of Kentucky, Democratic member of the Ways and Means Committee, expresses the opinion that the Republican majority in the next House will be very slender, and is confident that it cannot exceed ten in any event. According to his calculation the Republicans must show a gain of nineteen Representatives to secure majority, and he does not believe they have much exceeded that figure.

Baltimone, Nov. 8.—Factional differences have cost the Maryland Democrats a Congressman in the Fourth district, and perhaps one in the Fifth. The fight was bitterest in the Fourth district, where layner was defeated by Stockbridge. The Democratic candidate was strong with the working people, who voted for him irrespective of party because he represented the Morrison wing. The Hasin people cut him unsuercially. It is elaimed by Rayner's friends that considerable trading was done, Thomas votes being swapped for Rayner votes. The result was that both were defeated. The Seventeenth ward in this city forms a part of the Fifth district. It is a Democratic stronghold, and last year gave a majority of 1,000 for Compton. This time it gave only 400, and this defection may cost Compton defeat. Both parties claim a victory on the narrow margin of seven votes in a total vote of 34,000. Compton is one of Senator Gorman's stanchest supporters and the Senator would make any sacrifice to elect him. At Democratic as well as Republican headquarters today the most intense excitement prevailed. Chairman Archer of the Democratic Committee claimed a churality of seven votes, while Chairman Conklin of the Republican candidate. The lower counties in the district are beyond telegraphic communication, and it will be a gressman in the Fourth district, and perhaps The lower counties in the district are beyond telegraphic communication, and it will be a day or two before the official returns come in. The closest and fairest kind of figuring shows a plurality of one for Mudd, the Republican candidate, though the official count may make a change the other way. Either will undoubtedly make a contest should the other be elected.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—The Democrats have certainly eight Congressmen, the Republicans one, with the probability of getting Brown in the First district. This latter is on tidewater, remote from railroad and telegraph. There is no chance of hearing to-night from Westmoreland remote from railroad and telegraph. There is no chance of hearing to-night from Westmoreland and Northumberiand, the two counties which complete the district. Thus far Kendall, Dengerat, leads Brown by 250 votes. Westmoreland as hereofore been carried by the Republicans, while Northumberland generally gives a small Democratic majority. The two will not be separated by more than 100 or 200 votes. INDIANIOLIS, NOV. S.—From nearly complete returns from all the Congress districts it is believed the Indiana delegation in Congress will stand Jemocratis S. This surprisingly large gain is undoubtedly due to the return of the Greenbackers to the old party lace. Luce (hep.), for Governor, will have a derailty of about 13,500. He was bitterly opposed by the liquer men, and ran behind in all saes. Luce (Rep.), for Governor, will have a Berailty of about 13.500. ## PROBLETTIONISTS UNHAPPY.

They Think that a Large Part of Their Vote was Counted for Harrison

ALBANY, Nov. 8 .- The rumor is gaining strength throughout the State that the greatly decreased Prohibition vote this fall is owing to the crooked work of Republican leaders. Mem-bers of the former party hereabouts are firm in this belief. Mr. Fred F. Wheeler, Chairman of the Albany County Prohibition Committee. said to-day that advices received from private detectives employed to investigate the charges. strengthened this belief; but he was not prepared to say whether they would be able to prove the charges. The Prohibition vote in 1856 was 36,000; in 1857, 41,800, and this year only about 27,500. The 10 per cent, gain of the previous year is not apparent this fall, which Mr. Whosler regards as quite suspicious, particularly in view of the greater activity of the party than ever before. The canvass will be closely scrutinized, to prove, if possible,

WILL CARLISLE LOSE HIS SEAT?

A Report that Hiegal Bailots were Used by his Friends.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—A story is in circulation in Covington that Speaker Carlisle is to be deprived of his certificate of election. The ground of this action is the alleged filegality of the ballots cast for him in Campbell and Kenton counties. It is assumed that if these are thrown out his majority in the district will be overcome. The Kentucky law, it is said, requires that the ballot shall be on plain white paper, with no distinguishing features, but the carlisle ballots were printed on large sheets of perforated paper, so that when the tickots were for majority is related to the perforations appeared on the clarks, and Archibashop Church in this services will be similar in character to the services performed on the day of the Indian them the service will be a special service in old St. Paul's Church, to be conducted by Bishop Potter and the fee. This services performed on the day of the inauguration, and other gentlemen of distinction. This services performed on the day of the inauguration of the Suntan Chaptain to the Senate, which services were attended by the President and Vice-President of the United States and the two Houses of Congress.

The formal literary exercises of the Gay will take base on the steps of the Sub-Treasury. A special saliet of twenty-one guns will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs, a poem is expected from Join Greenleaf Whittender of the United States and the two Houses of Congress.

Carrisle ballots were printed on large sheets of perforation sappeared on the edition. At the close of these services the military industries; where took feet and Hall, the scene of the inauguration eventually the services were attended by t torn apart the periorations appeared on the edges, and made them easily distinguishable from other tickets.

Carrife's majority is placed at about 5,000. Should the Election Boards of Campbell and Kenton countles, which consist of the Clerk, Sheriff, and County Judge, decide to throw out the entire vote for Carlisle, his majority would be aimost wholly wiped out. It is said that on election day the Republican judges of election in several precincts in Newport and Covington objected to the perforated ballets, and they were counted under protest. The Campbell County Board is Republican, and efforts will be made to induce it to throw these votes out. It is asserted that under the law this is the only thing left to do.

Mr. Carlisle was pale with rage when confronted with the statement. "It is absurd: utterly absurd," he exclaimed. "I could have my fickets printed on diamond, triangular, or round pieces of paper if I so desired. You could go and vote on an onen ballot and it could not be thrown out. I have that portion of the law in my pocket," and be produced a piece of legal cap paper, with the following piece of legal cap paper, with the following opinion upon it:
"All ballots shall be printed or written on "All ballots shall be printed or written on plain white paper, and shall have on them the name of the person voted for and shall have no other distinguishing mark on them, and each ballot shall be so folded as not to show any part of the name written or printed

Their Witnesses in the Parnell Case Hel; the Irish Cause. Copyright, 1888, by Tax Sur Printing and Publishing Asso

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1888.

LONDON, Nov. 8.-The evidence before the Commission to-day has been a strange medley of tragedy and farce, from a grewsome story about masked murderers in January, 1882, told by eyewitnesses, down to evidence of petty socalled outrages, a description of which, interspersed with Hibernian bulls, moved the court to laughter. Most of the witnesses were unsatisfactory, especially from the Times point of view, for over and over again Attorney-General Webster had the mortification of hearing his own creatures, under Russell's skilful crossexamination, make admissions invaluable to the Irish members.
One man, a farmer from Loughren, gave evi dence so grossly contradictory that President Hannen, sniffing perjury, personally took him in hand, but soon retired builded, with the remark that he despaired of extracting anything from a witness whose professed stolldity was invincible. The object of to-day's evidence, and of much of a similar character to come, is to connect the Land League directly with specific crimes. The nearest approach to proof was made to-day when it was shown that a man arrested on suspicion of complicity in the Lough masked murders was paid money by a leading member of the Ladies' Land League. This caused something of a sensation, which soon subsided on the announcement that the man was released on the murder charge, and some time afterward arrested as a political suspect in common with nearly a thousand good men all over Ireland. It was as a political suspect that he got money from the fund publicly subscribed and publicly administed.

The report of to-day's proceedings would be incomplete without mention of Witness Cotterill, a typical landlord from county Galway. who in cross-examination admitted that he bought his property in 1871, promptly raised rents all round, confiscated tenants' improvements, and refused remissions of rent even in the stressful times until a year or two ago, when the Land Commissioners stepped in and compulsorily reduced them 30 to 40 per cent. Cotterill gave the finishing touch to the picture by admitting that he assisted in distributing relief to the starving peasantry, but himself never subscribed one penny to the fund. By the Associated Press.

The Parnell Commission spent the whole day The Parnell Commission spoot the whole day hearing witnesses of outrages. Dr. Harring-ten objected to the interpreter momenting Irish witnesses, and Justice Hauten cautioned the interpreter. Police testiled that a large force was occupied in protecting boycotted and threatened tenants.

The Parnellites have received informal intimation that the Times case will not be concluded before the Commission rises for the Christmas vacation.

Our Election. LONDON, Nov. 8 .- The Globe says: "President Cleveland has not gained anything by fussing with the fisheries question or by his brusque, rude treatment of Lord Sackville. It is satisfactory to find that even in America a weathercock policy is not always profitable. Their defeat is a heavy blow to the Democrats, It may help to compensate Mr. Blaine for his previous failure, as he will probably become Secretary of State. M. Blaine may not be able to revive the remarkable screign policy which helped to create distrust, and, promote his dafest, but his alliance or understanding with the Irish element may not tend to soften his conduct in international affairs."

The United Preland expresses indifference at the result of the Presidential election in the United States, as, it says, it has friends in "both camps," Harrison, the newscaper thinks, owes his election to the Sackville affair as the Irish voters suspected President Cleveland of being friendly with Lord Salisbury. While it is flattering to the Irish to be able to turn the scale in such a contest the fact is regrettable, as it had so humilating and menacing to America. The Irish vote exists as a separate and menacing factor in American politics, because the fact that Iroinal is without home rule rankles as a sucarhead in the relations of the English-speaking ruces. GUNS, DRUMS, AND POWDER THE SAGINAW'S FOYAGE WITH THE

HAVITAN INSURGENT GENERAL. nications with the State Department-A

Diplomatic Reply From Mr. Bayard, Mr. William P. Clyde get back to the city restorday from Norfolk. He then learned, for the first time, that the Saginaw, one of the steamers of his West Indian branch, had been engaged in a brief ocean race with the United States revenue cutter Chandler. The Saginaw won the race, but Mr. Clyde did not like it, all the same. He was astonished that the Clyde line should be suspected of transporting contraband of war. It was too absurd for words.

"As for taking insurgents on board one of our steamers on which were loaded munitions of war, it hardly seems necessary to make any denial," said Mr. Clyde. "What would there be to prevent the insurgents from selzing the steamer as soon as she got out of sight of land? I object to the statement made concerning us for two reasons. First, because it makes us appear to have stooped to taking part in a very small business; and again for the reason that we dislike to be considered such fools."

Mr. Clyde called on Collector Magone and sked him his reasons for sending the Chandler after the Saginaw. According to Mr. Clyde. the Collector explained that Mr. Stephen Preston, the Haytian Minister, had come to him and stated that the Saginaw had contraband of war on board, and had stopped down the bay and taken on additional cargo of a similar nature. In view of this statement the Collec-tor said he had ordered the Chandler to follow the Clyde steamer and investigate the true nature of her cargo. He furthermore ordered her seizure if contraband of war were found nature of her eargo. He furthermore ordered her seizure if contraband of war were found on board.

Mr. Clyde then sent this despatch to Secretary of State Bayard:

The him. Thomas F. Import. Secretary of State:

on Oct. 10 1 sent you by special messenger a letter asking whether you had received notice that the port of ape llaytien was blockaded, and tedling you that we had a cargo engaged for that port by our steamship saginaw. Upon learning that your department had notice of such blockade, we cancelled our engagements for all Haytian ports, and withdrew the steamer from the Haytian trade entirely, and despatched her for Tork's Island and san bomingo. After she had stailed the Martin and San Bomingo. After she had properly cleared and sailed. The entire did not overtake her, our public press and Minister Preston state that the United States Government, on his request, have or dered the United States Government, on his request, have or dered the United States Government, on his request, have or dered the United States Government, as his present of properly cleared and sailed. The enter did not overtake her, our public press and Minister Prestons tate that the United States Government, on his request, have or dered the United States Government, we have a particle of loundation for or a word of truth in the statements made by Munister Preston regarding the Savinaw having contraband goods on board, or being destined for only Haytian port I would like to know as quickly as the contraband goods on board, or being destined for early lay than port I would like to know as quickly as the with her and in such case who will be responshed for the boses inhered upon impocent owners of the ship and cargo. No one representing the Collector here or the tovernment has applied to us for information, and Compil Dasset was informed by as before the ship left, that she was not destined for any Haytian port. In the ship and contraband cargo on board. Owing to absence from the city, I only learned of this matter this morning.

Late in the afternoon Secretary Bayard sent Late in the afternoon Secretary Bayard sent this reply:
This department has not assumed to give any instructions whatever in relation to the selecter of the steamer Sadhaw, and has no knowledge of any instruction of the Secretary of the Navy to the commander of the lieston to cause any interference with the Linocen voyage of any American merchantmen to Tark's sland or San Domingo.

wyage of any smerican merchantment of Tark's island or san Domingo.

When asked about his interview with Mr. Clyde, Collector Magone said: "A gentleman named Clyde did eath or me to-day. He may have represented the Clyde line of steamers. I explained to him the nature of the information laid before me by Mr. Preston, the Haytian Minister, on Monday last, and told him of the investigation I had ordered made, if possible, by the Chandler. I simply did my duty in the matter, ands would act in the same manner again in a similar case. If the Fire Department is notified of a fire it can't step for allidavits. Mr. Clyde told me that no munitions of war were shipped on the Saginaw, the may have meant that there were none shipped for a Haytian port."

The supplementary manifest of the cargo of the Saginaw showed the merchandise aboard to have been of an extremely mixed character. Cases of heer, lard, coallish, kidney beans, Mextern dellars, crackers, ovsters, cabbages, and grapes were part of it. With these were:

J. 1980 Lyus of powder. 15 cases of bests. 3 cases of drums.

The munitions of war seemed to be consigned one particular consignee, and bore only the Monte criste.

It is hard to see what use Gen. Papillon could make of such a consignment in San Domingo. Papillon unfortunately is aboard the seginaw, and so no information can be obtained from him that will clear up the point. Mr. Iconeto Julia, the Dominient Consul at New York, says that all invoices certified by jum are private matters, and for that reason he clused to submit the manifest of the Saginaw to Mr. Bassett, the Haytian Consul, when that conforman asked him to do so. He said that the only hing for him to do was to certify any invoice of arms, if the shipment of such arms was authorized by the Dominiena Government. He said the shipment of any munitions of war by the Saginaw, if such shipment was made must have been authorized by his Government; and, with that authority given, the Haytian Government could rest assured that the arms were not for the insurgents.

The ensignors of the manifion of war on the Saginaw are Messrs, limenes and Hausted of 5 south William street. At the Haytian legation Mr. Julia is said to be a relative of Mr. Juan F. Jimenes, the senior member of the larm montioned. Mr. Julia said he made no distinction whatever in persons when acting in his official capacity. Mr. Jimenes is a Dominiena and his partner is a German. They have a house in San Dominigo. No information could be obtained at 5 South William street, and the directory gives Mr. Jimenes's address as Hayti.

Messrs, Hartley & Graham of 19 Maiden Lane, who sold the arms to Jimenes and Haustedt, would say nothing about the matter vesterday. They said it would not be fair to their custoners.

Mr. Clyde says that his company has a special permit from the easterns authorities to carry powder, on Tuesday Mr. Preston stated that the civile Commany had asked the Collector to interdict the Saginaw from clearing for any inythan port. Such an interdict, Mr. Preston said, would have relieved the Clyde Company from any forgasibility to merchants from whom they had accepted freight for llaytian ports, and throw the loss on the patrons of the nine because of such governmental interference. At the Clustom House vesterday Deputy Collector Dayls said the Clyde people had been to him live times extenday for laytia. The Collector refused to give any such interdiction, as the official notice that the ports were blockaded was enough. Mr. Clyde said they only wanted to ascertain whether the Saginaw had a right to touch at Hartian port.

ANNA DICKINSON SUES QUAY. She Was to Get $5,000, She Says, If Harrison Should Be Elected. Anna E. Dickinson, the lecturer, who was amployed during the recent campaign by the Republican National Committee, says that she has not been paid fully for the services she rendered. She has just brought a suit in the Supreme Court against Chairman Quay and the other committeemen to recover $1,250. Miss Dickinson says that she was engaged by the committee in September last to deliver thirty lectures, principally in the West. The agreement was that she was to receive $125 a night, her expenses, and also her wardrobe. In the event of Harrison's election, she was to be paid $5,000. She has received $3,750. Howe & Hummel are the counsel for Miss Dickinson, and served the complaint upon the members of the committee last night. Miss Anna Dickinson's stump work in behalf of the Republican party in Indiana and other Western States was severely criticised by the Republican managers there. She adopted the vigorous style of denunciation that she employed in slavery days, and it was felt that a reaction was sure to follow the first effect. But she delivered the thirty lectures she was employed to give, or at least she got paid for them. at the rate of $125 apiece, or $3,750. Miss Dickinson, Mr. Quay, and Mr. Dudley temporarily abide under the same roof at the Everett House, but they have not seen each other since the lady's arrival. Senator Quay said that he knew there was such a suit, and that was about all, as the whole details of the speakers' bureau had been left in the hands of Committeeman Cassius M. Goodloe of Kentucky. He did not know the terms of Miss Dickinson's contract or agreement, or whether there was any agreement. Col. Goodloe left the city last evening for Lexington.

THE SOLID SOUTH BROKEN.

Republicans Claim West Virginia, with Three Congressmen and the Legislature. WHEELING, Nov. 8 .- Despatches just received to-night from the capital of the State announce that Democratic State Treasurer Thompson concedes West Virginia to the Republicans by from 400 to 700 majority. This is simply confirmation of the steady Republican gains that have been coming in to-day. The Republican State Committee here claim the State by a much larger majority. They also claim to have at least three, and probably a solid delegation of four Congressmen and a majority in the Legislature. The Republican enthusiasm in this city to-night is unprecedented. Thousands of people have crowded the streets in front of the Intelligencer building to read the bulletins, and on every hand is heard the cry that the "solid South" is broken at last by the vote of this State.

Quay is a "Napoleon of Politics," and Cabl-net Making is Beginning. Col. Calvin S. Brice returned to Wall street yesterday for the first whole day in months, and Senator Arthur P. Gorman went home to Baltimore. The National Democratic Committee sent out this final bulletin: The National Democratic Committee to-day concedes the election of Harrison. When the National Commit-tee claimed the State of New York on Tuesday evening by 10,000 to 15,000 majority the figures of the return then received fully justified the estimate. The report then received fully justified the estimate. The reports from New York city and from large communities in the interior of the State showed Democratic gains, and the first reports from Brooklyin were to the effect that the majority there was 18,000. The telegraph whree were very crowded, and the transmission of the committee's builetins to the West was considerably delayed. There he evidently a misapprehension in some parts of the West as to the time at which this despatch was sent.

This bulletin is evidently called out by the statement on the part of Judge Thurman, who on Tuesday night gave it up, and he did not see what Col. Brice meant by claiming New York. The Judge had received late returns and an early bulletin. All the early bulletins ware received. were roso.
The Republican committeemen were over

The Republican committeemen were overwhelmed yesterday with telegrams of congratulation. Col. Quay came in for the biggest share of the compliments. A fair average of the laudatory characterizations was "Napoleon of polities." He was "mentioned" from all parts of the country for every Cabinet office and for other high rewards. He is, however, understood by his friends to be in the comfortable position of not wanting anything for himself. Warner Miller had not been heard from. There was some talk about Cabinet making at headquarters, Those mentioned for places were John Wanamaker, toy. Alger, and John S. Clarkson. It is understood that Dudley is going to remain in New York and connect himself with a big engine making company with offices in Wall street. It is not that there is much fear of the Democrats pushing the letter business against him. But there is a tremendous feeling between Dudtey and John C. New, and the latter will not hesitate to make it uncomfortable for him, with the aid of the letter or anything else. Dudley rather shoved New out of the campaign work here, and New will get square.

CALIFORNIA FOR HARRISON.

The Democrats Claim the Legislature by Three Majority. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8 .- The Republican

State Committee estimate that the Democratic plurality in the city will be about 5,000, but contend that the outside counties will furnish a Republican plurality of 14,000, and that the Republican electoral tieket will be elected by 9,000 plurality. Late this afternoon the count has been completed in 140 precinate in this city out of a total of 176, and the result is as follows: Cloveland, 26,986; Harrison, 26,116.

The Alfa this morning has a summary of the vote on the legislative ticket, which, including Senators who hold over from last session, will make the next Legislature stand as follows; Senate, 22 Democrats, 17 Republicans; Assembly, 39 Democrats, 41 Republicans, thus giving the Democrats a majority of three on joint hallot. There is a vacancy in one Senatorial district, caused by the death of a Republican Senator a week ago, ontend that the outside counties will furnish

Mrs. Rawson's Divorce.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8 .- When Judge Shepherd this afternoon called up the application of Mrs. Meckie L, Rawson for a decree of divorce from Meckie L. Rawson for a decree of divorce from her husband, the banker Stephen Rawson, it was found that the case was to go by default, the defendant failing to appear. This appears to have followed as the result of an agreement between the litigants, by which it is said that Mrs. Rawson was to receive $70,000, and that the husband was not to defend an action for divorce on the ground of desertion. The case has attracted much attention owing to the prominence of the persons interested, the extraordinary allegations made on both sides, and also because Mrs. Rawson tried to shoot her husband's attorney.

PHILIP BAER THROWN FROM THE

CAR PLATFORM INTO THE STREET, He Tried to Get On After the Train Had

Started, and Me Was Carried Past the Station and Crushed to Death, Philip Baer of 313 East 121st street left work at 6 o'clock last night to go home and take his wife to a ball at the Lexington Avenue Opera House. A half hour later he was lying dead under the elevated railroad station at Capal and Allen streets. Baer mounted to the Canal street station of the Second avenue road to take an up-town train. One was already at the platform, and he rushed to catch it; but the gate was slammed in his face as the train started slowly.

Baer knew that his wife would be awaiting his coming, and he asked the guard to let him on. The guard refused, and Baer clung to the gate to argue the question. The guard tried to push him away, but he only clung the more tenaciously to the gate, while the train was gaining in speed every moment. Baer was carried the length of the station and struck he rail at the end of the platform with great violence. He was crushed in the narrow space. but still clung to the platform as the train kept on.

The unfortunate man clutched an iron red with his left hand while his right arm hung broken at his side. An alarm was given, and the train was stopped, but before any one wenk to the man's assistance he loosened his hold, and fell twenty feet to the sidewalk below and struck on his face. The train started on again immediately, and Baer's body lay for an hour on the sidewalk, surrounded by afcrowd, before an ambulance drove up. Finally the body was carried on a strotcher to the Eldridge street police station and from there to an undertaking establishment in Ludlow street.

A bill in one of the pockets revealed Baer's name, and his family was notified. At 10 o'clock friends went down from the Lexington Avenue Opera House and identified him. Beer was 28 years old. He leaves a widow and three small children. He was a clerk in the house of Rosendorf & Co. at 47 Walker street. Baer was a member of the Jewish Mutual Relief Society, of the Sons of Benjamin, and the Order of the Iron Hall. These organizations will have charge of his funeral.

The elevated railroad men at the Canal street station would say nothing about the accident last night, and the officers of the company reused any information. At the general superintendent's office in the Grand Central depot it was said yestorday afternoon that new men are being hired to fill the strikers' places, and all freight which has accumulated in the yards will be CHARLESTON, Nov. 8 .- Now that the election is over, the license tax war is again attracting public attention. There are twenty merchants in jail, about eighteen of whom are to go to jail rather than sacrifice what they considered a principle. They have been in jail nearly two weeks, and seem to enjoy it, The Council had a meeting to-day, and the situation was thoroughly discussed. It is understood that the imprisoned merchants understood that the imprisoned merchants have expressed a willingness to comply with the law, and take out their licenses, provided they are released from jail. They absolutely refuse, however, to pay the fines and costs. The City Council referred the matter to the Mayor and the Ways and Means Committee, with power to act. It is thought that the committee will accept the terms of the prisoners, and order their release upon the payment of the license tax, remitting the fines and costs. There were forty-seven cases in all. Of these twenty are in jail, and six have paid up the fines and costs and taken out their license. It is probable that the whole matter will be settled to-morrow. It is also probable that the license laws of the city will be so amended as to rid it of its objectionable features next year.
